

LA POSADA READERS THEATER

Meeting weekly in the Community Center to rehearse short scripts, this popular group performs in several venues in the area.

Founder and director Regina Ford says that it's harder to memorize lines as we age so this presents an opportunity to "act" without having to memorize.

The hilarious skits they perform are tailored for the senior community and enjoyed by everyone.

LA POSADA VICTORY VOLUNTEERS

This program offers a volunteer experience in a comfortable, social setting for people interested in giving back to the community without making a big commitment.

Every Monday at 10:00a.m., volunteers gather at the Community Center to pitch in and help complete worthy projects.

When finished, you can enjoy lunch at the Center or go on with your day knowing that you helped make your community a better place.
